

My “WHY” BAG

Ladies I want to start off by sharing a little bit about WHY I do this. First of all let me say I think I have the greatest job in the Universe! I get to go into peoples house's, Meet their friends, play in jewelry and eat their food and then I go home and tell my husband and 5 kids I was working!!! Seriously... I want you to just watch what I do tonight because I totally get this may not be for your....but “in this economy” everyone in this room could probably think of 1 person in their life that could use the kind of income Premier provides.

1st- Big Bling Ring- The reason I have this in my “Why” bag is because I wear my jewelry everywhere! To the grocery store, my kids activities, church and out to eat. I love it because people actually walk up to me and often compliment me on my jewelry! It gives me a way to share about what I do with out being a “sales person” and ladies if I rep'd pots and pans it would be heavy wearing those around everywhere I go!

2nd- I have my Hand Cuffs- (lol...) Now it's not that kind of show... but the reason I have hand cuffs is because I am not handcuffed to any deliveries- everything ships to my hostess_____. Not hand cuffed to inventory--- that is my jewelry box ladies and I earned most of it free or 80% off. Not handcuffed to sales quota's- If I sell I make money and if I don't... I don't. Not hand cuffed to time off- I work around my family and my husbands job which requires him to travel 2 weeks every month. I'm not hand cuffed to a set pay. If I need to make more money I just book more shows and I get paid every time on the spot. I average $350 per show but the average person makes around $200 per show. I love it!

3rd- I have My beautiful charm bracelet- because all these charms represent different awards and recognition I have earned. The only time I got recognized at my full time marketing job was when sales were down, but it wasn't the same kind of recognition if you know what I mean. My husband Ray and I have been to 22 different destinations all over...that Premier has paid for because of all the ways to earn recognition. In 20 years with HIS company... Once... it's really hard with his. I earn free jewelry, free trips and the best part is... I am constantly being trained by the BEST in Premier so it almost feels like I'm cheating...but I'm not!

4th- Is my cut up Credit Card- Did you know that 80% of americans have at least 1 10k debt that they would like to pay off? Did you also know that only 1 time a week leaving your house (50 weeks a year) would pay off that 10k debit? The average person in this current economy is coming up short between $200-$500 a month and Premier could meet that need in 1-2 shows per MONTH. Everything has gotten more expensive...gas, groceries, meat but most people are at the same income or less than 5 years ago and it is catching many. My husband and Ithrough Premier were able to avoid a foreclosure and get out of a massive debt and now I want to share with anyone that will listen how Premier can be a blessing to you or someone you know!

5th- Ice cream Scoop- Now ladies, I've shared some personal stuff here, but the reason for the Ice cream scoop (besides the fact I like ice cream) is because if you'd like to get the "Scoop" on this business.. for you...or a friend.... Please check #4 on your survey and I can get you information in a "stalker free" way! I promise!
